

McGeorge Law Review

Volume 3 | Issue 1

Article 3

1-1-1972

Editor's Note

Charles Sanders

University of the Pacific; McGeorge School of Law

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/mlr>

Part of the Law Commons

Recommended Citation

Charles Sanders, Editor's Note, 3 PAC. L. J. v (1972).

Available at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/mlr/vol3/iss1/3>

This Front Matter is brought to you for free and open access by the Journals and Law Reviews at Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in McGeorge Law Review by an authorized editor of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

Editor's Note

The Pacific Law Journal is pleased to announce the formation of a Select Committee of Advisors to the Journal. The advisors include Justice Leonard M. Friedman of the Third District Court of Appeal, who will serve as the committee's chairman; George H. Murphy, Legislative Counsel, California Legislature; John DeMouly, Executive Secretary, California Law Revision Commission; Honorable George R. Moscone, California State Senator; Robert Williams, Office of the Governor; Harold F. Bradford, Legislative Representative for the California State Bar; Bruce F. Allen, partner in the law firm of McDonough, Halland, Schwartz, Allen and Wahrhaftig; and Thomas W. Martin, partner in the law firm of Martin and Chidlaw.

The Board of Editors feel that the knowledge, experience and professional expertise of these advisors will be an invaluable asset to the editors in their efforts to serve the California legal community. The members of the committee, as one can observe, represent the bench, the practicing bar and experts in the California legislative process. We hope that the diversified views of the committee members will help the editors to develop editorial policies which will make the Journal more valuable to our readers.

The Board of Editors wish to extend their sincere appreciation to the members of the committee for donating their time to assist us. The Editor-in-Chief wishes to extend his personal appreciation to the advisors for the knowledge he gained from the first meeting of the committee.

Charles Sanders
Editor-in-Chief